[?] A hundred poor [?], I work all day, I hardly have no time to play

I only have time to take a piss, there must be more to live than this

I caught Sally in a lie; I caught her with another guy She promised they was only friends, that is where our story ends

Last night I went to the bar, I walked there, it wasn't far I knew nobody in the place but I wore a disguise just in case

My enemies are all around; they wanna put me under ground

They wanna kill me and what's worse; I think they plan to hurt me first

So much rain is falling down; the crops have rotted in the ground

Mortgage due, the end of May, perhaps I look the other way

Get that son of mine to work, that boy'll drive me plum berserk

Told him go to pick some hay, next thing I heard him drive away

Doctor's taken awful sick; he's scheduled to die next week

He's already blind and out of his head but I'd never thought we'd see him dead

This town has gone from bad to worse; sometimes I think it must be cursed

These folks are ruled by greed and fear; we need some law and order here
