One two three four

I went down to Gravel Road
I went to get my fortune told
The fortune teller robbed me blind
I can't get her out of my mind
I don't know where I've been since then I'll never go down Gravel Road again

Gonna visit the place, gonna stand in the spot where her young life was blotted out Some old codger, white as a ghost, thought he'd hit a mail-box post
I don't know where I've been since then
But I'll never go down Gravel Road again

I went to sleep with a smile on my face but I woke up in different place
I never did scream, I never did shout but I gave up trying to figure it out
I don't know where I've been since then
But I'll never go down Gravel Road again
