"Towards The Infinite"

Visit "Towards The Infinite" on MotoLyrics.com

Spirits of multiverse
Unspeakable presence of malice
Heading towards the infinite

Ordained with crown of disdain and irreverence in the principality of nightmares' inheritance

Rays of the addling planets intoxicating,contaminating

Wretched distortion of light

Inanimate ventures to struggle

View bleeding in coma
Shapes dancing around a pallid scenario
Wrapped in murder

Hours go by as the lights grow dim paintings of black and red on the floor Silence engraves these wounds
Serenity of evermore
