You fought with bravery
Won some of the battles you commanded
But still you won't concede
You tried to knock us down
But we're still standing
The war you waged with me
Our oldest enemy

When it all plays out
And you know you know you love me
When it won't lay down
Then it's better just to let be
There's no way you could hide
I wouldn't find you
There's nowhere left to go
But you and I
Oh Oh

You fought with strength in me
You played me like a drum that you could bang on Followed your crazy beat
You shook me up to see if I could hang on
So what we fighting for
When no one wins the war?

When it all plays out
And you know you know you love me
And it won't lay down
Then it's better just to let be
There's no way you could hide
I wouldn't find you
But you and I
Oh this time
All this time to get it right
Cause I'm oh so tired
Of fighting

And I'm all played out
And I know you know you love me
And I won't lay down
And I'm never gonna let be

There's no way you could hide
I wouldn't find you
But you and I
Oh Oh

But you and I
