Blue Mornings

(Words and Music by Columbia Chaaise)

Life as we believe

Cast all the shadows of love sometimes on a memory of the scrapbooks that fill our minds, but it's alright cause those Blue Mornings cant come and stay forever vastly I go on, jump in my car and drive trying to find restoration, destination for this thought of mine

Sometimes I think I might not ever find Love

But it's just another Blue Morining tryng to keep me down from my heart being happy the way it should be

Oh Blue Morning stop teasing me breaking me down to my knees

Blue Morning, Stop Pin Pointing my Life and Hearting Me Please

My time has come and I can feel it

I know its there for me, even though in front of me I see another Blue Morning I've Gotta Believe...Believe...
With Your Love you touched my life and it's hard for me to just let go of you baby...over night I've become conditioned to what you've given me You're like the Sun that Shines upon my Desert without you I'm incomplete, naturally you give me a sense of comfort, and a beautiful feeling (Soft Golden)
and My heart sings but yet I feel the Blue Morning I don't believe no more though in these Blue Mornings I've gotta go free...and set my life free of all these Blue Mornings No more of these Blue Mornings of I'm gonna go free...Let Go of Blue Mornings No more Hypertension, You Have the Right to Vision, Make The Right Decision... and Let go of all those Blue Mornings Just Spread Your Wings and Fly Free...
Lean Upon Me, It's Up To You...
No more Blue for Me...The Sun is shining, You've gotta believe In No More Blue Mornings...
