Immortality
Every man's dream
Superreality
Just follow the stream
A world dominated by pain
Torture is the game
Decisions are yet to make
Promises are to forsake

But in a corner of your mind
Visions of a celestial sphere
Will give you nothing to fear

Poverty
Every day's sight
Dishonesty
At least one human right
A world drowned in blood
Dying in the mud
Massacres all over the place
Countdown of our days

But in a corner of your mind
Visions of a celestial sphere
Will make you go away from here
