Seen that, fucked this
England's got the winning miss
Been here, am there
Cheating ain't fuckin' fair
Drank this, eat that
Beer makes your belly fat

This song doesn't make sense
But it's impact is immense
Just some words in a row
It's all part of the show

Sucked her, screwed her
Eventually I sued her
Who knows, who cares
Twins always come in pairs
Nightmares, wet dreams
I guess it's not what it seems

This song doesn't make sense
But it's impact is immense
Just some words in a row
It's all part of the show

Take more, get less
In Holland a bottle is a fles
Two hands, two feet
Animals supply us of meat
Seven days, one week
It's time to let the guitar speak

This song doesn't make sense
But it's impact is immense
Just some words in a row
Why don't we just end this asskicking, buttwiping, muthafucking show
