All by myself, nobody around
No fucking noise, no fucking sound
An innocent man, victim of hate
Lies on the street, but now it's too late
Surrounded by death, life is no more
All of this, because of a war

James, Ozzy
They all said it before
Bells, Warpigs
What's the use of war

Another town, another war
Again no one knows what he's fighting for
A dying soldier, system of hate
Lies in the gutter, but that was his fate
Chemical warfair, my eyes are sore
All of this, because of a war

Max, Evan
They all said it before
Chaos, Black & white
Nobody cares for war

Nuclear missiles, shield and sword
Millions of slaves, only one lord
A dead politician, started the hate
Face in the mud, didn't hesitate
Pushed the button, earth is no more
All of this, because of a war

Philip, Dave
They all said it before
Slaughtered, Ashes in your mouth
I can't take it anymore

Hitler, Saddam
Flush 'em down the drain
You can kill the enemy
But you'll never kill the pain
