This is just an excuse to make you feel more at home, but your face is in a different world, you got all the guns you need,
you got them,
I got a heavy heart that feeds, don't fight it.

The bear trap of life will take you for a ride, it will hold you tight,
hold you tight,
bruises and a couple black eyes will fit you into place, badder dayz about to come your way.

I hear the bark,
I guess you lost the bite, now you got your head in the horse's ass.

Badder dayz about to come your way, fake namez about to call your grave, so hold your breath and save it for some easy religion, dog bless you and goodnight.
