"Why I Cry"

Visit "Why I Cry" on MotoLyrics.com

The streets are empty again and now its time to amend the weakness of these tears.

Now im a man i am Someone who needs a hand helping me through these years

Im living a life of fear im walking alone in tears im wasting away in sleep

And it feels just like your listening
And blessing all i see Taking all that i need
and this is why i cry

The hope that i can feel
is gagging on its knees
and this is why i cry
when your all alright now

And it feels just like your listening
