i remember, i remember the days

[verse 1]

i remember she sit there with her thickness never played a game but i heard about them sisters a wise mister said love is gunna get ya but that ain't what i read in the scriptures, god be with us it was hard for me to take down the benches i was tripping, i even called her sister how could someone you could talk to, each and every day that you 'bout to marry, be on their merry way i'm singing through the pain like i was mary j cause we break up to make up like mary kay rumors leaving tumors on my heart now we fell in love huh just to fall apart now i get your calls and i try to disregard now what was easy for us now is hard now huh? who do it better, we used to move together now we not together, is this our new forever?

i remember, i remember, i remember (it happens to the best, so i love and i lost)

[verse 2]

hell nah, i'm waiting on your call told you be i'll be back, had to break down some walls issues that i had, some say it comes from not seeing my dad, keep moving on hard for me to stay away and stay in touch girl, my heart is broke and i need a crutch thought i was okay but nights that i stayed up ass got me layed up, girl i never gave up on you and us, i tried to take it day by day, and whew its tough i know your young and you gotta live your life ma i thought it was the right time for me to wife ya i must confess, i miss the days of you laying on my chest so confusing losing love, i'm saying god bless who do it better, we used to move together now we not together, is this our new forever?
