[pops]

yeah, yeah, bring it on uh huh, with the ya ya, yeah just sitting around kicking it a little bit i thought we would record something tonight and i do want to dedicate it to two very outstanding people i live the spirit of gentlemen crispus attucks and mr. marcus garvey thank you so much the believer if i were a believer, i believe i would believe in the beginning everybody's beginning mine, that my very first ancestors were front row and present when god stepped to the mic i believe from the creation of the garden of eden the separation of the tribes our long marches across the desert being (?) kids for instincts born in caves of ice all, each and every one, the souls of one god granted earthly existence to allow each to earn the blessing of transcending, time-traveling throughout the universe with the blessings and well-wishes of my fathers, prophets of my own no search, no steer no mysteries we inherit the power to turn nightmares into dreams for those of us who come from less than (?) circumstances dreams, good dreams, sweet dreams, dreams come true truthful dreams, truthful dreams become life life becomes belief, belief becomes live! live the life you believe the american dream, the black american dream, the universal dream for the sake of the unwritten laws of humanity, i believe in god

i believe in my ancestors, i believe in my offsprings i believe in dr. savior, i believe we must stop (?) mention each other i believe in the truth, truth see you next lifetime
