What do you see when look at me and I'm just standing there?

Shit, that make the world all work, that's what in my blood

And I won't stop until I drop 'cause my life's just burning out

So walk, keep climbing, won't look down until I reach the top

What a world, what a world

What a world, what a world

What a world, what a world

What a world, what a world

A little boy from Chicago had dreams to be a star

And make a way and get some pay and drive a fancy car

Though his mama used to say to him, "Hey boy, just go school"

But whether it was old or new in school he broke the rules

What do you see when look at me and I'm just standing there?

Shit, that make the world all work, that's what in my blood

And I won't stop until I drop 'cause my life's just burning out

So walk, keep climbing, won't look down until I reach the top

What a world, what a world

What a world, what a world

What a world, what a world

What a world, what a world

Now his whole life he told his boys, "Hey y'all, I'm going to rap"

So when he got a rap contract, it wasn't no turning back

Now his mama she would say to him

"You need to get, get back in school"

And all the trash that the peoples say he was using it for fuel

What do you see when look at me and I'm just standing there?

Shit, that make the world all work, that's what in my blood

And I won't stop until I drop 'cause my life's just burning out

So walk, keep climbing, won't look down until I reach the top

What a world, what a world

What a world, what a world

What a world, what a world

What a world, what a world

And the story goes on and on, it goes on and on and on
They say, "Hey boy, you rap real good but ain't making no hit songs"

So he'd tell himself, yo, yo, yo self you gotta do it the way you do

And make this music from your soul and make it fresh and new

What do you see when look at me and I'm just standing there?

Shit, that make the world all work, that's what in my blood

And I won't stop until I drop 'cause my life's just burning out

So walk, keep climbing, won't look down until I reach the top

What a world, what a world

What a world, what a world

What a world, what a world

What a world, what a world

Then the game, it started to change

They say music just ain't the same

Though he remained the song he is sang

Just keep your drive, stay in your lane

Inch by inch the people came

They started to know his name and say you do your thang

Now the whole, whole world singing his song

From Chicago a star it born, wow

What do you see when look at me and I'm just standing there?

Shit, that make the world all work, that's what in my blood
And I won't stop until I drop 'cause my life's just burning out
So walk, keep climbing, won't look down until I reach the top

What a world, what a world
What a world, what a world
What a world, what a world
What a world, what a world
