You can't stand to see what this makes of me
It tears you up inside to see me free
I won't give in to them and their conformity
Stop to raise my voice, so hear me scream
Think, it's about what's inside
Think, they can't justify
Think, your life is your own
So think for yourself
I won't step into line, I walk my own path
Blinded by their lies, but see the truth
I cut the puppet strings you can't control me
Fight to make a change so listen when I say
Think!
