I am a fighting soul
I am a living dying breed
But I still believe

I broke the heart of love
I can't erase the things I've done
But I still believe

It's dichotomy, the way that I live
Instant prodigy, in my head

Let me out and watch me burn
I burn brighter than hells' flames
My final breath is my last hope

I scream into my soul
I am the mark the devil missed
Jesus will fix what death broke

I found a war within
I found a battle in my head
But I still believe

I am a marked man
My head is wanted in Hell
But I still believe

It's Dichotomy, the way that I live
Instant prodigy, in my head
