Tweety fell out of the nest
Seven children laid it to rest
May the love grow up with them
Oh I, where have I been?

And all around this comfort home
Now I'm in the yard
And every face that smiles for me
Where they were, they are
It occurs to me, I am a bird to you
The wind it occurs to me, carried the bird to you
Rent a treehouse by the week
Pets included, food is free
A wall of pictures takes me in
Oh I, where have I been?
By 9 o'clock the sun has set
Say a prayer for those who forget
Settle down and plug me in
Oh I know where I am
