Before you sleep at night, do you ever think of me?
I often wonder what our years of distance mean
Honestly

Have you looked around to see an opening?
Can you find a way to get here back to me?
Honestly

No, I need a hand to keep this man away from you
I wonder what our years of distance mean to you

When it's late at night do you dance hypnotically
Can you feel my hand swing you gently close to me
Honestly

I try so hard to keep so far away from you
Imagine it's the best I can do for you

Carousel can you slow down and take me on?
I need a change of company
Can you go past the stopping mark?
Go until it's dark

It was hard to leave but it's harder to be free
Cause I feel the best when she's not leaving me
Honestly
