There you are and you can't believe a thing
Especially what you see.
Something kind of like a voice
Makes it's way across the desk.

You know we're gonna put you
In a cadillac.
You'll be laughing all the way
To the bank and back.
I really think I see you
Just like that.
Everybody wants to have it all.

At least there's a door a few feet away
From your chair.
There's a door and as you begin to stand
You take a last look at the man.

You know we're gonna put you
In a cadillac.
You'll be laughing all the way
To the bank and back.
I really think I see you
Just like that.
Everybody wants to have it all.

Nineteen and 70s Chevy
Tricked out a time or two
I'll let the Nova
Call the shots again.

(Chorus)
