So the trouble got your tongue
And all you pulled it out together
Finally set things straight
Sounds about right

Being something
Well I don't think so,
You do nothing like I doubt you will
Being something

What's that now and
What's that you forced?
Better known as the answer
What's that you now and
What's that you forced?

On you own it's just the same.
But you're sure it's for the better.
Always on the fence
Well the words just won't ring true.

Being something
Well I don't think so,
You do nothing like I doubt you will
Being something

What's that now and
What's that you forced?
Better known as the answer
What's that you now and
What's that you forced?
