

Confession Of Faith "The Sacrament"

Visit "The Sacrament" on MotoLyrics.com

You tell me this is love I feel
Beside your nakedness I kneel
Entwined in this sickening bliss
And praying for my saviors kiss
You say salvation will never die
Beneath your naked skin I lie
I know you see the tears I shed
But laughingly you turn your head
You fuck me for the love of skin
How worthless I know my life has been
You bathe me then in love's disease
That pulls me to my helpless, my helpless knees
Chained upon your lonely bed
You fuck me while the tears I shed
Cloud my eyes that know not love
That see salvation far, so far above
Please taste death upon my tongue
For it's by you that love was hung
So cold my soul upon the floor
Raping love you made a whore
Should we really be in love
