You will be mine
And I'm on top again
And I know you'll undress me
As the day drags on she says
Will you untie me
You step in time
I follow you
Your little legs
I say it won't hurt this time
But your tears invite me
Please let me be inside
Please let me be inside
Dance again
When I taste of your skin
Slowly my sorrows wane
And I see love as that which is not in vane
But then with each time I pray it my last
To god I entreat death for I am unchaste
Oh I'm so tired
Of love that tastes so stale
Nothing will be given to me
But you I will always have
You won't turn me away I know
Will you crawl to me
You will love me I say
Will you let me inside of you
Please let me be inside
Dance again
Love was meant for a girl like you
When I taste of your skin
Slowly my sorrows wane
And I see love as that which is not in vane
But then with each time I pray it my last
To god I entreat death for I am unchaste
Dance again
Love was meant for a girl like you
