Had enough of this world
Blatant lies
We will try to just get by
It makes no sense we're still alive
There's no place, lose a race
Stand by and watch as we fall
Tragedy no one could call

Humanity! Nothing left for me
Society! Is closer to the brink
All I see! Is human disease
We'll die alone! Only lost souls
And never know! If the truth was told
What's there for us? Dead american dream

I've had enough of this world
Blatant lies
People try to just get by
It makes no sense we're still alive
There's no place, lose a race
Stand by and watch as we fall
Tragedy no one could call

Cowardliness! It leaves the world behind
Government! Corruption defined
Prisoners! Of a war on decline
Same place! The world that you believe
Poverty! Fucked up reality
Everyday! I want to make a change

I've had enough of this world
Blatant lies
People try to just get by
It makes no sense we're still alive
There's no place, lose a race
Stand by and watch as we fall
Tragedy no one could call

Take a stand
I've had enough of the world
It's blatant lies
People can't get by

This master race, lose a race
Stand by, watch as we all fall
Just fucking watch as we fall
