Sometimes I feel like only god love me
Maybe that's cause only god can judge me
I hear him talking back like trust me, trust me
I know there's better days ahead

As new doors open, many close from the past But that's the consequence of being focused on your cash, yeah
So believe me, it's gonna cost you
You may even lose your boys
Stay harboring feelings, I should join a yacht club
When I rather join Brazilian models in a hot tub
You can't run from the bigger picture
Hot as me your game sposed to get you richer
If you weren't know what hit if man can't sit you
So I'ma get rid of this 1800 number
I'm tired givin hotlines to all of these suckers
But that's no reason to hang off
But it reason to say what We've been saying that's part I got beef on my currency
Like Harry Fraud
See I'm a star who belongs on the hall of fame
Every broad that I beat, took the walk of shame
And set my name like the test result came
And the doctor walked me in, to his office to explain
That I can't control my fans, they gonn buck with me
I guess they sexually active, they fuck with me, and stuck with me
No matter what I say
Cause they know, yeah they know,
They know, we was bound for better days

[Hook]

I know there's better days ahead, it won't be long now
I know there's better days ahead, it won't be long
I know there's better days ahead,
If we can just make it to the dawn
If we can just make it to the dawn
Finally we can move on

I know there's better days ahead,

Look, my status been bola, moved up at jerry lola
So I'm the next to give a check to bambola
Or benny the jeweler, spend plenty of mula
Just to get fresh to dawg and ricky the ruler
So I don't need a tutor one to come to this fly shit
Fresh out of flight school with a tv pilot
So you must be on more purp than violence
The things is gonn work if you try it
But what I did got them assesin damages
And heading for a meltdown like grill cheese sandwiches
Damn amateurs, makin rookie mistakes
That's the reason why gamblers got bookies in place
We raise the stakes like darry fonds
They lying understand like barry bonds
So I can keep jammin like raspberry foam
And that 45 don't jam in my palm
Mgm grand on the lobby of the palms
I swear I'm bout to start a riot
Got a bunch of models on a starvin diet
When you hash tags, don't need to hash browns
We need to hash it out, or get your ass out
So keep wishing and you might get your wish granted
But make sure who you spend it with khalif standing
Cut before the sway, interviews made the man
And mary j blige did a burger add
My girl would jump out with the burkin bag
But this time around, we really gonn hurt em back

It won't be long now
We was born as goal catchers
We gonn be some dream catchers
I gotta be movin now
Can't look back, life is a ...we all must

I know there's better days ahead,
I know there's better days ahead,
I know there's better days ahead,
If we can just make it to the dawn
If we can just make it to the dawn
Finally we can move on
I know there's better days ahead, if we
