In the dumb fat side
of the heavy, sweaty black
Malaria night
You can tell the shit from the essence of heaven

In the smash and grab in the sharp attack dishonest night
You can say what you want
and somebody listen

There's laughter and glass and perfume and flags and kisses and trains and roses and vaccines

Chorus
I'm living in a neon house
I'm living in avalanche road
I'm living in hangover city

Whatever gets you acclimatised
Radiation and downcast eyes Serious sight
We're looking for a wild machine Cybernetic rabies

Syndication and sympathy might work for you but not for me I love you best when it's all a mess Will you lie for me cry for me die for me will you please

Never never never never never never never say no

Chorus
I'm living in a neon house
I'm living in avalanche road
I'm living in hangover city

All these unforeseen things tumble down
I've got a love and it won't stop burning

Malaria night
and somebody listen

Gonna say what I really want Come on say what you really want
Gonna say what I really want Yeah say what you really want

I wanna live with Halo Jones
I wanna home that's miles from home
I wanna drugs from the Twilight Zone I Wanna never never never never

Chorus

And all these unforeseen things tumble down
I've got a love and it won't stop burning-
