My soul's as dry as a valley of bones. As I walk this desert called Earth. There's dust in yhe tracks of the tears I cry. I'm as helpless as a babe at birth. I stumble to the last mirage I saw. And I fall to the sand. Close my eyes, breathe a desperate prayer.
When
I open them, there you stand.

Chorus

Here's my cup. Fill it up, fill it up, fill it up, then
I. I will taste, I will drink, I will savor life, oh.
Let it overflow, my cup, my cup.

Your water's as pure as Edens river. Sweet as an angel's kiss. And I don't dread the journey now. Or fear the serpent's hiss.
So pour your water out on me. Until my soul is drenched. Untill I'm safe at home with you. My thirst can not be quenched.

Chorus/Bridge

God, I'm so thirsty, I'm so thirsty God. Lord, I'm so thirsty, I'm so thirsty Lord. I'm so thirsty God.

Chorus

Here's my cup, fill it up, fill it up, fill it then I.
I will taste, I will drink, Pour it out and I will savor life
