I close my eyes, but I can see questions circling.
How do I realize the dreams You sparked in me?
Will I leave impressions deep?
Lord, You answer clearly.

No eye has seen; no ear has heard; and no one can conceive

CHORUS

Great expectations, there's so much waiting for me.
Anticipation lets You reveal my destiny.
I may not know every road, but I know positively
Great expectations are what You have for me.

I breathe Your hope, assurance comes, my doubts
begin to fade.
What I'll become, what I'll achieve lies in the promises
You've made.
So write on me Your story line. I am waiting.

No eye has seen; no ear has heard; and no one can
conceive

CHORUS

Great expectations, there's so much waiting for me.
Anticipation lets You reveal my destiny.
I may not know every road, but I know positively
Great expectations are what You have for me.

You have designed a purpose within me.
Perfect in plan. Make it a reality.

CHORUS

Great expectations, there's so much waiting for me.
Anticipation lets You reveal my destiny.
I may not know every road, but I know positively
Great expectations are what You have for me. (x2)

what You have for me (echo til end)
