La la la la
I feel just like a castaway
In circumstantial dissaray
Like a guest thatt's on display
Looking for some time away
What I need here You provide
You keep me safe and satisfied
Life is just a souvenir
And I am just a stranger here

[chorus]
This is not where I belong
The days here all seem so long
I hope that Jesus comes today, today
Hooray, today

I've got a home up in the sky
A mansion I'll soon occupy
That's a place that I hold dear, but God's not through with me down here

[chorus]
This is not where I belong
The days here all seem so long
I hope that Jesus comes today, today
Hooray, today

I can't imagine how and when You'll appear
I reached for heaven's door, and everything came crystal clear
I will be ready to ascend
To be taken by a friend
On that day, I'll fly away
Maybe it will be today

[chorus]
This is not where I belong
The days here all seem so long
I hope that Jesus comes today, today
