Sleeping beauty you awake so abruptly and I don't know why
You smile so sweetly but you cut me so deeply and I don't know why.

When you're clearing up the pieces, you'll see what you've destroyed. Ignorance is as beautiful as him, you're so far underground you can't win.

Sleeping beauty you awake so abruptly and I don't know why
Dainty princess black stains drench your white dress and I'm pretty sure why.

When you're clearing up the pieces, you'll see what you've destroyed. Ignorance is as beautiful as him,
you're so far underground you can't win.

I'd call it more of a getaway
It's so like you to runaway

When you're clearing up the pieces, you'll see what you've destroyed. Ignorance is as beautiful as him,
you're so far underground you can't win.

Never wanna look back, you wouldn't see me
But finding it so hard, now you've left me
Just like the meaning of life, you're so hard to define
Never wanna look back, you wouldn't see me
But finding it so hard, now you've left me Just like the whisper in my ear you said I'd be fine, be fine, when you left, I never said goodbye.
