Nah, nah, nah, nah, nah, nah
Nah, nah, nah, nah, nah, nah
Nah, nah, nah, nah, nah, nah, nah

Nah, nah, nah, nah, nah, nah
Nah, nah, nah, nah, nah, nah
Nah, nah, nah, nah, nah, nah, nah

Well, I don't believe
We can't find the remedy
And I don't know why
Everybody says goodbye

It don't matter who you are
You can't go very far
It's written in the stars

Singing, everybody loves, everybody cries
Everybody dreams of a perfect life
And that's all right

So let's get busy, give it a try
Everybody love somebody tonight
It'll be all right

'Cuz everybody loves, everybody cries

Nah, nah, nah, nah, nah, nah
Nah, nah, nah, nah, nah, nah
Nah, nah, nah, nah, nah, nah, nah

Well, you can drink champagne with the President of Spain
Be a poor man walking in the pouring rain
Wherever you go, whatever you find
There's really just one kind

It don't matter who you are
It's written in the stars

Everybody loves, everybody cries
Everybody dreams of a perfect life

And that's all right

So let's get busy, give it a try
Everybody love somebody tonight
It'll be all right

Well, some might say it's a hopeless fight
Like the sun coming up on a Saturday night
But I'd say everything will be all right
'Cuz everybody loves, everybody cries

Everybody loves, everybody cries
Everybody dreams of a perfect life
And that's all right

So let's get busy, give it a try
Everybody love somebody tonight
It'll be all right, it'll be all right, baby

'Cuz everybody loves, everybody cries

Nah, nah, nah, nah, nah, nah
Nah, nah, nah, nah, nah, nah
Nah, nah, nah, nah, nah, nah, nah

Nah, nah, nah, nah, nah, nah
Nah, nah, nah, nah, nah, nah
Nah, nah, nah, nah, nah, nah, nah

Everybody loves, everybody cries
Everybody dreams of a perfect life
Everybody loves, everybody cries
Everybody dreams of a perfect life

Every, every, everybody cries
That's alright
Everybody loves, everybody cries
Everybody dreams of a perfect life
