Hey whatcha' say,
An empty day
Won't you be brave
You're everywhere
Oh you disappeared though

A grave mistake
For Heaven's sake
Ya did it all for Jesus
Did ya think it all would please us?

If you step outside
I'll warn you from your suicide
This pain in your eyes (?? pain in your ass?? heh)
Don't do anything
Just pray for something better
There's always something better

Ooooooh, take you home
Hear me
Trespassing

Hey, whatcha say (what you say)
Do ya think you could stay (it's a beautiful day)
Did you do it all for Jesus?
Did ya think it all would please us?

If you step outside
I'll warn you from your suicide
This pain in your eyes (??)
Don't do anything
Just pray for something better
There's always something better

Well I can feel it inside
You got charm (??) and we both know why
Don't turn your back to the sun,
Cause baby babe your gonna burn
My baby's gonna burn down yeah

She tried to tell me... you know

Its kinda weird she's got her mom's...
Thinking back i don't know if it was the right thing to do,
But...
It wasn't enough to hold her hand
It's freaked up ??

If you step outside
I'll warm you from your suicide
This pain in your eyes (??)
Don't do anything
Just pray for something better
There's always something better
[repeat]

Take you on ...

I can feel it inside
You've got time to make up your mind
Turn your back to the sun
'Cause baby, babe you're gonna burn....
