Dear James we'll never know how you'll feel today,
You try but you make no promises anyway.
I feel pretty good today so I'll try not to piss it all away.
I'll be a friend and come around.

I feel like one in ten so I'll try again,
It might fail but at least I'll be a better friend.
I feel pretty good today so I'll try not to piss it all away.
I'll be a friend and come around.

I feel pretty good today so I'll try not to fuck it all away,
I'll be a friend and come around

And the sun still shines above you when you're on the
dark side of the street.
(Don't piss it all away)
It's a beautiful day, you'll find a way.
Get back up on your feet.

And the sun still shines above you when you're on the
dark side of the street.
(Don't piss it all away)
It's a beautiful day, you'll find a way.
Get back up on your feet.

Don't piss it all away. [2x]

Dear James we'll never know how you'll feel today.
