Who cares what you think
Who cares what you do
It makes no difference today
Who cares what I know
Who cares what I feel
It makes no difference anyway
But what do I think
But what do I feel
It makes a difference to me
Who cares what you think
Who cares where I go
It makes a difference to be free
Who cares what they think
Who cares what they feel

It's just a barrier of time
They say I'm too young
They say you're too small
It's all just a frame of mind
Who cares what I think
Who cares where you go
It makes no difference to me
Who cares what I feel
Who cares what I know
It makes a difference to be free
It makes a difference to be me
It makes a difference to be free
