I'm tired of everything
I'm lookin' for the peace I dream
I wonder if love you could still Give me what I really want
You don't let me breath
You don't let me live
I'm sorry 'cause IÂ'm not like you want
'Cause what you want, don't let me breath
You sad youÂ're scared about loosing me,

But you are already loosing me
You destroy my dreams
Why don't you look inside of me and see my deepest dreams?
Why don't you try to understand, my soul and my passion for life?
No more anguish no more doubts I just want to break free, yhea
You are doing all by yourself
