I wonder if you can understand
What I feel now, while I'm lying naked
In front of you, bleeding
I give you all my life
And you fool me, you destroyed my feelings
You destroyed all my passion
What you've done, I can't forgive it
Â' Cause you know, it burns inside of me
Â' Cause you know, I can't look at you

I feel your flesh now is not mine
I feel your thoughts are not mine
And now my love for you became like a poison for me
You know I cannot kill myself
Just to leave me alone
Just to help me to clean my mind from you
Leave me alone
