My god, Iâ€™m roaming inside myself
Looking deep inside my mind
And now I turn back, lookinâ€™ in to my past,
Asking to myself, what did life give me?
I spent all my life, breakinâ€™ my fuckinâ€™ bone
Gettinâ€™ mud on my face, spittin' blood everyday.
And now no one cares, and now no one know
What I really feel, laying on this bed.
My eyes are blind, my voice is dumb
But my mind is full of light, I decent deep inside my soul
Pain-life, dream-light, pain-life, I strike the end!!

I feel the pain is flowing inside me
I'm just the shadow of myself
Living in my thoughts, I escape from my hell.
Tied to this machine, I feel my really life is not here
And now no one cares, and now no one knows, what I really feel, laying on this bed.
My eyes are blind, my voice is dumb
But my mind is full of light, I decent deep inside my
soul
Pain-life, dream-light, pain-life, I strike the end!!
