Your love for me will always be
Here to stay, so tenderly
Matilda, I'll cry and cry for you
Yes, no matter what you do

Matilda, I've cried and cried for you
And no matter what you do
Yes, I've cried and cried in vain
I want my baby back again

You gave me love when there was none
You know you're the only one
Tears that's in my heart to stay
I want my baby back again

Matilda, I've cried and cried for you
Yes, no matter what you do
Yes, I've cried and cried in vain
I want my baby back again

Matilda, I've cried and cried for you
Yes, no matter what you do
Yes, I've cried and cried in vain
I want my baby back again

You gave me love when there was none
You know you're the only one
Tears that's in my heart to stay
I want my baby back again
