[Grand Agent]

My name is Grand Agent

Check check it out

I'm down wit Jim Slade, he's down wit Louis Logic

Jim Slade, Grand Agent, Louis Logic

[Chorus] 2x

Service the target

Where it hurt the most we hit the hardest

Point blank range aimin at them artist

Your game ain't up to par

It's time we turned lames into martyrs

[Grand Agent]

I got a thing for potent words like cocaine

Inside the flow game, they don't know how to show shame

Additional instrumentation ain't it, sane it

Strictly words and ventilation when I paint it

Famous as Footwear gear, plane as Goodyear

Black and well-rounded, sales plaques mounted

Invite your dialouge, demigods to the dome

Leave a classic example on the porch if I ain't home

Then BOOM, I bloom just like breasts in the pre-pubesce

Easy now, who you test?

MC who stress me, arrest me cardiac

Stat like 'where the party at, black?'

Now it's in your back

Then insert the knife like the earth so good

Inside his wife, drink my flow, it's a way of life

Victory, it be the standard for me

I'm on some "I'm better than the rest of y'all"

As far as Grand can see

Nuttin but smut, now you watchin me

Butt-fuck doctrines clockin me through factory systems

Did you actually listen?

Or am I gonna have to return like I ain't burn you up sufficient

Turn me up when I be bitchin, my style is decision

Something like a violent Christian with a molavision

Turn me up when I be bitchin, my style is decision
Something like a violent Christian with a molavision
Service the target

[Louis Logic]

I walk up in a strange person's department
With the purpose of startin
A fire that burns up your carpet and murders your market
Campaign strategist like a murderous arsonist
Whose brain passages resemble insane activists
It's gonna take alot of band-aids
And governmental mandates to save your fanbase
When Louis Logic slayed
And Grand Agent put the heat to the beat
MC's get so weak in the knees they need to retreat
This is warfare, combat, that switches sportswear
On contact, to your ears when we on tracks
The effect to this is stronger than the head that spins
In the Exorcist, or cigarettes and gin on a pregnant chick
Somebody's bound to die
My record company's out to hide something about this guy
They say "Logic's such a character, he'll probably just embarass ya"
That's why I'll never get the fuck wit Arista
Plus my manager thinks that I drink too much
I probably think too much, of morbid things and such Like ringin sluts' necks, I'm a suspect to the crime scene
Retired green wit my team spillin vats of Visine
I got a dirty mouth, but I practice hygiene
What I mean by that is cats will catch a cursing-out
With the maximum curse amount in a verse allowed
I don't worry 'bout puttin fuckin clean versions out

Chorus 2x
