Believe in me just a little
So I'll be strong
Take our pictures together
So nothing's wrong
They can say what they wanna
I'll be sure
Ever look in the mirror
For something more
Something more
Something more
Even though you're the one leaving
I'm the one who's here believing
In you
By now you don't care at all and I believe it
I breathe the same air as you and it's apparent
Even though it's so much better
By now you don't care at all and I believe it
I leave my words in a letter that I won't read
I lose our pictures forever that I won't need
They will say what they're gonna
I'll be sure
That you will look in the mirror for something more
Something more
Something more
Even though you're the one leaving
I'm the one who's here believing
In you
By now you don't care at all and I believe it
I breathe the same air as you and it's apparent
Even though it's so much better
By now you don't care at all and I believe it
