Baby, I'm a fool for falling into you.
I didn't want to see the signs that told me stop.
You're not that into me, apologies won't make it go away.
I don't want sympathy, there's nothing you can say.

(Chorus)

I lay awake at night to a heartbreak lullaby.
I can't sleep, baby, I keep hearing your goodbye.
Like the sweet refrain of a heartbreak lullaby.

It's a f drag. (f drag)
You don't feel that bad. (you don't feel that bad)
I guess you tried to tell me it was temporary.
You're not that into me, apparently there's someone else around.
I might need therapy so I can tune you out.

(Chorus)

I lay awake at night to a heartbreak lullaby.
I can't sleep, baby, I keep hearing your goodbye.
Like the sweet refrain of a heartbreak lullaby.

You say you're sorry baby.
Well, I would have to agree.
But sorry doesn't mean that much to me! (No no no!)

(Chorus)

I lay awake at night (it just won't go away) to a heartbreak lullaby (don't know why I feel this way)
I can't sleep, baby, I keep hearing your goodbye.
Like the sweet refrain of a heartbreak lullaby.

The sweet refrain of a heartbreak lullaby
The sweet refrain of a heartbreak lullaby.
