hello wonderful. i seem to have caught you out of the corner of my eye tonite when you glanced that gaze at me. you're so beautiful. this time i just know it's you. you're the one for me, and i think i'm galling in love again. hello wonderful. it's 5:01, and you haven't called me at all. well, i've written you letters, sent you pictures of me when i was a child with a smile, and i've given you all i have. it's really no mind, and i think i'm falling in love again. hello wonderful is 17 to 2 and you haven't called me at all. well, i've written you letters, sent you pictures of me, when i was a child with a smile, and i've given you all i have. it's really no mind, and i think i'm falling in love again. wait, i think i'm falling out of love again. all i ever wanted was for you to call me back. i'm so in love with you.
