You sold the soul that
Cradled us from the world we were under
Waste machines and politics
Buried the things that we need to discover
Say you will understand
These circumstances
Say you will hold my hand
And we'll take our chances
I can't say when it's all gonna change yeah
I can't say when it's all gonna break yeah
Turn me over
Keep turning me around again
Around again
My four leaf clover
Has fallen on the ground again
The ground again
You paved the road that
Traveled us from the roof we were under
Ashes had blown away
Long before I could dream of another
Say you will understand
These circumstances
Say you will hold my hand
And we'll take our chances
I can't say when it's all gonna change yeah
I can't say when it's all gonna break yeah
Turn me over
Keep turning me around again
Around again
My four leaf clover
Has fallen on the ground again
The ground again
Will you be yourself
When you're not alone
Will you be yourself
And find your own way home
Turn me around
Turn me around
Has fallen to the ground
The ground
The ground again
