Its long time you payed your dues
We're tired of your attitude
Can't you see this aint the place
To shove your morals in my face
The more things change the more they stay the same
The more things improve the more you complain
The more you destroy the more that remains
You're only playing games
Who are you to look down at me?
You take yourself too seriously
I'm never gonna make a pledge
To the holy straightedge
The more things change the more they stay the same
The more things improve the more you complain
The more you destroy the more that remains
You're only playing games
The substance where I cut my teeth
Is absent from the shit you preach
Never had I ever dreamed
You'd take this to such an extreme
