Let me see this time
what's behind those eyes was it the same old thing once dwelled in my mind Maybe tonight
I'll slip behind those eyes to trace the scream searching echoes in your mind Maybe this time
I'll slip behind your eyes to see the world from your side understand the dirt inside Overwhelming feelings, be so kind step over, please and give me the sabre never ending looks, don't be so shy take my body now before its disabled.
