

Coptic Rain "The Haunt"

In a daze of promising tomorrow just a splendor to wipe away your sorrow I gave you my hand, trust, then I've bend in your deceitful bravery ignorant I stand depleting
You placed me a step ahead you compelled me to do whatever you said whatever you had whatever your thoughts could be Unchain me
Never never never let me down never never let me touch the ground will you be there when my faith's refund will you let them to remove the crown see my shadow, fade away free this soul of shame Fall into the deepest sea wave to the seagulls to carry you into another galaxy but only in your sleep only in your sweetest daydream

whatever your dreams would be Unchain me.
