you must think that I'm a queer but you can't blame me for my fear when i see dracul I cry cry cry broke my heart and took my soul thru these two little holes broke my heart

broke my mind
made me be his demon bride

then we knelt onto his bed his gnarled hand on my head talked such sweat pillow talk spun my head

said he spun his web

when I died you came to my side and said you'd love me but you took my heart into your mouth said (scatting)

(scatting continues)

took my heart and broke my soul
broke my heart
