So many years you've been the sun...
Stronger than steel.

[Verse 1]

So many years you've been the sun.
Forever shining on me and everyone.
So many years and I've never dreamed.
One day you might need a light for me.

[Bridge]

Hearts can be broken but I know,
Steel's the bond that I have inside for you.
Hearts can be broken but I know,
Together this love can see us through.

[Chorus]

Cause I will be here beside you.
Bright as the sun to light the path that you're on.
I'm here beside you.
Stronger than steel when you need someone to lean
on.

[Verse 2]

So many years I've missed the signs.
So many years I've walked through darkness deep inside.
I never told you you saved me then.
Now this love will make you shine again.

[Bridge]

Hearts can be broken but I know,
Steel's the bond that I have inside for you.
Hearts can be broken but I know,
Together this love can see us through.

[Chorus]

Cause I will be here beside you.
Bright as the sun to light the path that you're on.
I'm here beside you.
Stronger then steel when you need someone to lean
on.

I'm here to remind you.
I'm bright as the sun when all your hope is gone.
I will be here beside you.
Stronger then steel when you need someone to lean
on.

For you...hey hey hey.

On...when you need someone to lean on.

For you...for you...for you....for you...for you...for you...

When you need someone to lean...on.
