Wild Fire
a desire to be loved Climb higher to the platform just above Little liar
you deceive me with your wit Elocution
sculptured perfectly to fit

Tug of war
with the blessed and the mugged Please let me quiz you Rest assured, but unplugged Town crier has our voices, kindly bugged

Wild Fire a desire to be loved

Wild Fire
a sifting signal of the times Tossed and turned up in deceptional rhymes Soap and water
I'll wash your mouth out all the same She's my daughter but I let her play the game
