Well I like a full bodied lager as much as the next hardworkin' man
The taste of suds while dealin Stud, I can surely understand Trucker's speed and yes indeed, it's nearly gettin' light,
It's time to switch to whiskey, we've been drinkin' beer
all night.

You can fish for bass and cut your grass and drink that purple gas,
Sure enough, but the powerful stuff that'll knock you on yo' ass
Like diesel fuel, nobodies fooled, don't wanna get left behind
It's time to switch to whiskey we've been drinkin' beer
all night

It's time to switch to whiskey we've been drinkin' beer
all night,
We're all half dead and them that's left is spoilin' for a fight,
Well who'da thunk we'd quit drinkin' drunk
The boys don't spare the rye, It's time to switch to whiskey we've been drinkin beer all
night

I've been splittin 8's and hittin my straights, in the card rooms of the world Chasin' skirt and gettin' hurt, but now I gotta card playin' girl,
Man she gets excited when the deal don't come out right,
It's time to switch to whiskey, we've been drinkin' beer
all night.

It's time to switch to whiskey we've been drinkin' beer
all night,
We're all half dead and them that's left is spoilin' for a
fight,
Well who'da thunk we'd get jackass drunk

The boys don't spare the rye,
It's time to switch to whiskey we've been drinkin beer all
night

Well I heard it said, that you can get some heat in irish pubs, Servin jameison's to an orange mud and a bushmills to his cuz, Here's what you do, with tullamore dew, you can meet us both have way, it's time to switch to whiskey we've beend rinkin beer all

t's time to switch to whiskey we've been drinkin' beer all
night,
We're all half dead and them that's left is pullin for a
fight,
Well who'da thunk we'd quit drinkin' drunk
The boys don't spare the rye,
It's time to switch to whiskey we've been drinkin beer all
night

all night.

Rye whiskey, rye whiskey, rye whiskey, I cry.
