Yeah
Ahh

Lookin right
Wishin we could rewind
Changin every wrong to right
That ya see

If you could
Don't you think that you would
Make your world
Just like you want it to be

Now it's never to late
There's a will
There's a way
Gotta stay in the game
Go the distance
Cuz you live and you learn
That it takes a lot of work
But you win in the end
With persistance

Mix it up
Get it right
Go for another try
But you
Run it back again (run it back hey)
Replay
Hit rewind
This time you do it right
But you
Run it back again
Run it back again
Run it back again
Try again

Never wait around
Cause every minute counts
If you had the time
What would you do with it
Would you change

Show me what would rearrange
If you got the puzzle right
How would the pieces fit

Now it's never too late
There's a will
There's a way
You could save the day

Like a hero
Cause you live and you learn
That it takes a lot of work
Hope that nothing's gonna stop
Oh no
Go (ohh)

Mix it up
Get it right
Go for another try
But you
Run it back again
(Run it back again)
Replay
Hit rewind
This time you do it right
But you
Run it back again
Run it back again

On your mark
Get set
Let's go
Oh you can make it happen if you want it to Tick tock
Time to rock you know
the futures up to you

One more time now

Mix it up
Get it right
Go for another try
But you
Run it back again (back again)
Replay
Hit rewind
This time you do it right
But you
Run it back again

Mix it up

Get it right
Go for another try
But you
Run it back again (run it back back back again)
Replay
Hit rewind
This time you do it right
But you
Run it back again
Run it back again
