"In My Dreams"

I see you every night, I pull your strings
You dance for me, you laugh, I make you sing
I want complete control, I say when
Let's try again

I see you every day, you walk on by
I try to speak but then I wonder why
I have you every night all to myself
Never alone asleep, you're gone

I wrote a line or two, tried to explain
In your morality it's not the same
I want you on your knees, I want you down
Never a sound

You could be, yes you could be, the one I love
You could be the sexy thing I'm dreaming of
You could spend the night with me
And never know you were here, in my dreams

You could be, yes you could be, my slow romance
You could be a master in my lovers' dance
You could scream out loud
And there's no one to hear, only me, in my dreams

In my dreams
In my dreams

I see you every night, I pull your strings
You dance for me, you laugh, I make you scream
I want complete control, I say when
Let's try again
Let's try, let's try, let's try again

You could be, yes you could be, the one I love
You could be the sexy thing I'm dreaming of
You could spend the night with me
And never know you were here, in my dreams

You could be, yes you could be, my slow romance
You could be a master in my lovers' dance
You could spend the night with me

And never know you were here, in my dreams

You could be, yes you could be, the one I love

You could be the sexy thing I'm dreaming of

You could spend the night with me

And never know you were here, in my dreams
